NUMBER OF SKATERS PER NATION

Germany, Netherlands and Switzerland, 4 ladies, 4 men and 4 pairs per category.

All other nations: 3 ladies, 3 men and 3 pairs per category.

Skaters who had won a medal on European or World Championships in free skating are not allowed to start in the same category.

RESPONSIBILITY

The Swiss Federation does not take any responsibility for accidents during practice and competition either for skaters, officials and all other persons.

JUDGES

Each nation has to send one judge. There must be a minimum of 5 judges. Organizer will provide lodgement and meals in twin rooms (two bedded room) from Thursday until the next morning after the competition however. If a judge prefers to stay in a single room, the difference of the room rate must be paid by his federation or by himself. The trip has to be paid by the judges or their federation. The federation has to announce the judge with the entries.

ENTRY

Each nation must send their entries with the dates of participants and the judge not later than the September 10, 2009.

GABY EGLI

Until the September 10, the federations can cancel the skaters without entry fee. If competitors are withdrawn after that date, the federation has to pay the entry fee, unless it is caused by a medical reason. In this case the federation has to bring a medical report.

ACCOMMODATION

You can find accommodation addresses at the end of this announcement. The nations have to contact directly the accommodation for booking.

For more information or questions please do not hesitate to contact us. The organizing committee and the SRV are very pleased to welcome you at the
